Senior Will

I, Gary Beyer, will my ability to drive down the railroad tracks, to the Junior Class. Wayne's Rambler ought to work perfectly.

I, Vicky Young, will my laugh to Pete Zwall. Now maybe people will hear him laugh.

I, Scott Straham, will nothing to "nobody" because I need all the will I got. Good luck!

I, Debby Kraft, will my title--THE SHRIMP OF G. H. S. --to Greg Strahm. Hope you enjoy it, Greg, because it sure is a lot of fun to be short!!!

I, Tom Kraft, will all the fun I have had on band trips to any poor sap who wants it. Have fun and keep your feet off the floor.

I, Denise Beyer, will my shorthand pad to Debbie Mozingo. Curve those B's, Debbie. Terri Moore may have my trig book. Take care of it, it's in good shape.

I, Danny Beyer, will my good looks, intelligence, courage, and self-confidence to nobody, because I still need what little I have. PS. I would have willed my little "red devil" that I inherited from Mike Bahr to someone but it ran away.

I, Diana Luthi, will to my dear twin sister, Terrie Book, my pick-up (alias YELLOW BOMB). Rev it up good on cold mornings!!

I, Dan Everitt, will my ability to get along with Coach Ritzel to anyone who enrolls for his Psychology class.

I, Chuck Shepherd, will my school pencils to Doug Moore.

I, Dennis Thomas, being in sound mind and body will my two front teeth to Doug Collins after I get them knocked out.

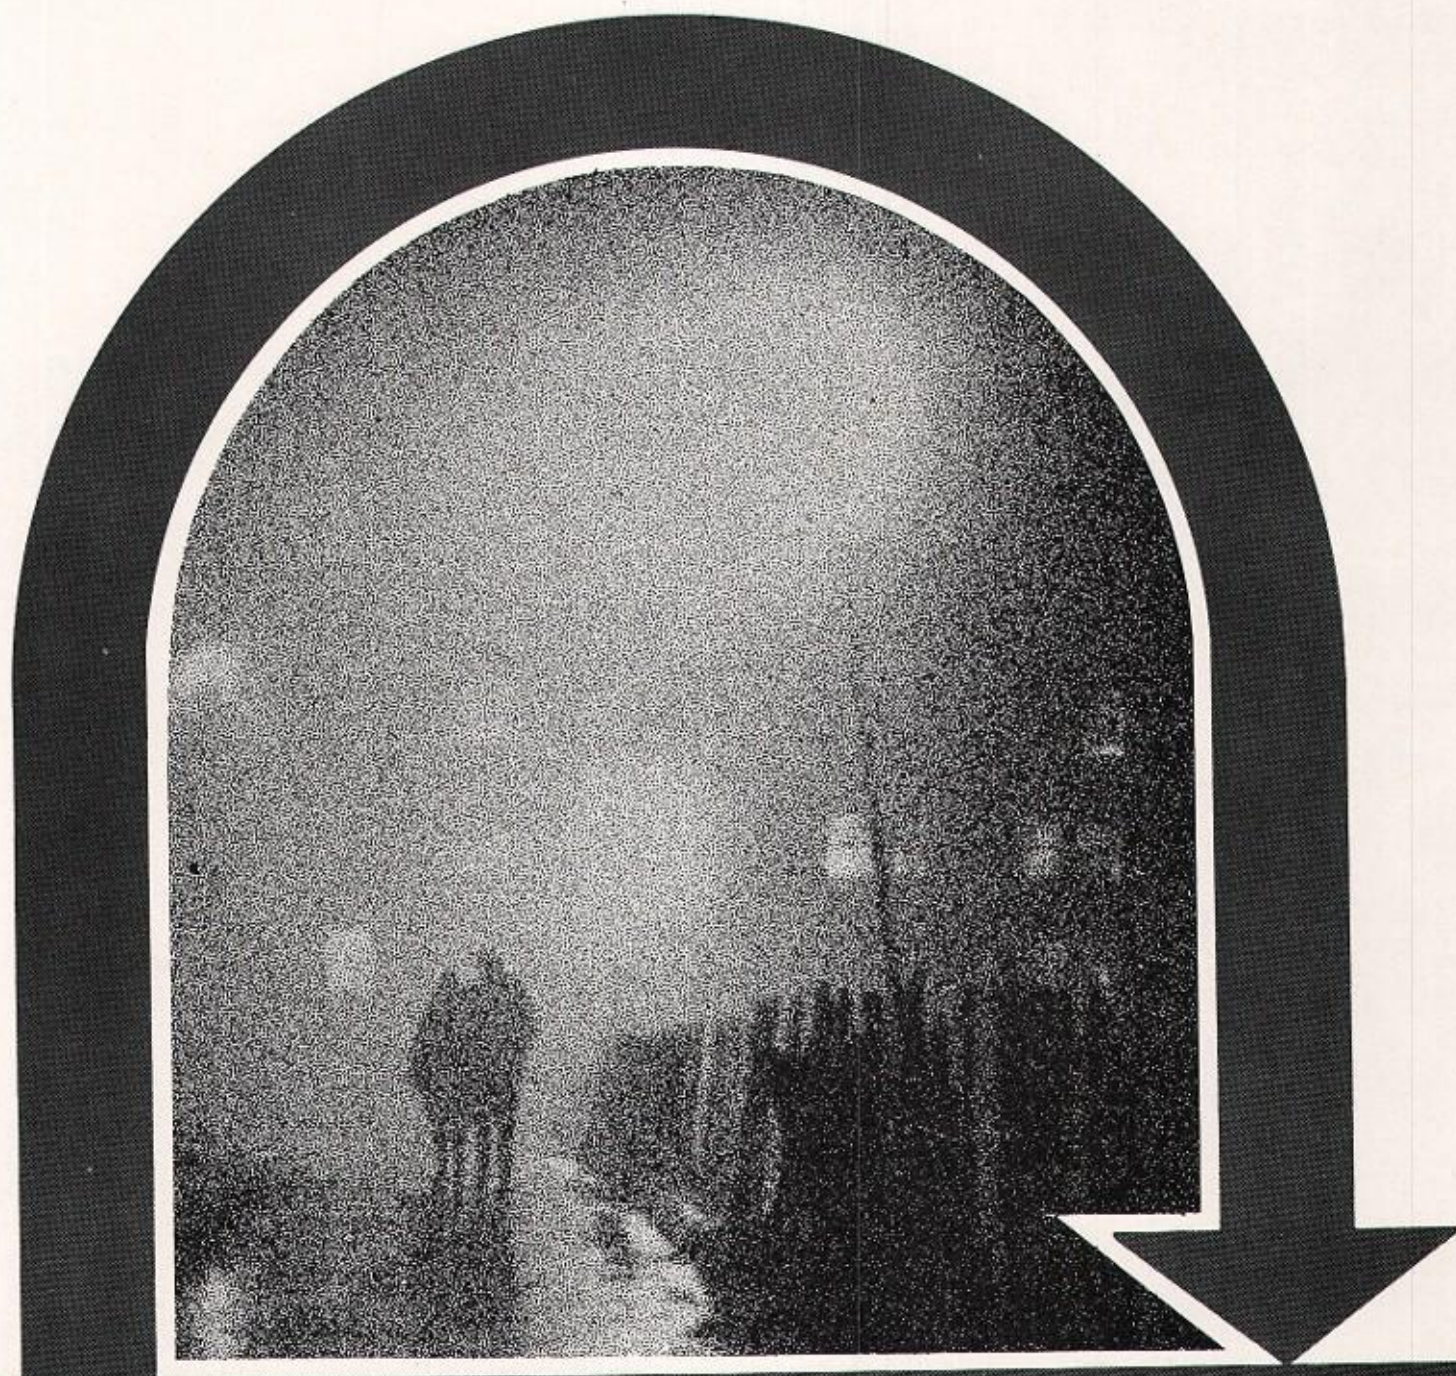

I, Jeff Paskin, will locker No. 22 in the football dressing room to Paul Book, Jr. Be sure to feed the crickets twice a day and mop up the water.

I, Colin Young, will my ability to forget to shave to Scott Birk.

I, John Eccles, will all the Monday's to Mr. Ochs. Enjoy the three day weekends!

We, Brenda Kraft and Lynne Raaf, will our KSU T-shirts to the Lingenfelter brothers. Wear them with Purple Pride.

I, Barbara Kraft, will my ability as a right-hand man of the annual staff editor to the lucky one.

Remember!

Midnight Hour

'Twas a very special night--Our Prom!

The stars were so bright as were my eyes.

The banquet, prepared by the Junior Class mothers, was the beginning of a memorable evening.

Arriving at the dance, we entered another world--or so it seemed.

The band "Fyre" made this special night full of fun and dancing.

--Then, all too soon it ended.

After the dance we went to the show at Burlington and finally back to the breakfast furnished
by the Booster Club.

It was over, but what a beautiful memory it left behind--

Our Junior-Senior Prom.
